ANZA
Following Anza's PTA theme of, "Knowledge is a Journey, All Aboard," this month's association meeting is titled "Conductors of Tomorrow." The meeting will feature Anza's Student Council showing the democratic principles in process. There will be 45 students participating, two representatives from each room, grades 4 through 8 and the elected student council in an actual Student Council meeting, showing the inner-action of the Student Council, proper parliamentary procedure of classrooms and the Student Council. The Council will be introduced by Miss Barbara Hester, vice principal of Anza. The meeting will be called to order by Mrs. Julian Hart, president, at 9:30 a.m. in the Anza cafeteria on April 20. The flag ceremony will be led by Cub Scout Troop 996C. Hostesses are 7th and 8th grade mothers. Coffee will be served at 9 a.m.

Open House and Science Fair will be held at Anza Thursday, April 27, 7:30 to 9 p.m. Science Fair displays will be in the classrooms for grades kindergarten through 3rd grade, and in the cafeteria grades 4 through 8. The public is invited.

Board members will be helping with Kindergarten Round-up May 1 through 5 at the school. Student Record Books will be on sale.

Anza students were treated to a presentation of the Popcorn Theatre Puppet Show on Saturday, April 8, with two showings.

COLUMBIA
"Family Excursion Night," will be the theme of the evening for the Columbia PTA meeting April 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. This will be the annual "Family Fun Night" and will feature an ice cream social with games and prizes. All families of Columbia school are invited to attend.

The following officers were elected at the March PTA meeting: Mmes. Joseph Kettering, president; Kenneth Poiry, first vice president; Jack Stewart, second vice president; Paul Kolleck, recording secretary; Charles Breaker, corresponding secretary; Monroe Wiles, treasurer; Clayton Bowen, auditor; Walter Witte, historian.

HICKORY
In place of the April PTA meeting, Hickory school will hold its annual Science Fair and Open House on Wednesday evening, April 19. Individual classrooms may be visited, as well as the Science exhibits on display in the school cafeteria. A PTA-sponsored Bake Sale will also be held on that evening.

Mrs. Ben Wallace, president, and elected delegates will attend the April 20, 33rd District Convention.

The May meeting of the Hickory PTA executive board has been rescheduled for Thursday, May 4. Following the meeting, the members will adjourn to the Latitude 20 restaurant for a luncheon and installation of new officers for the 1967-68 year.

HOWARD WOOD
Members attending the March 14 Howard Wood PTA meeting were taken on a very colorful and lively World Cruise by the teaching staff of Howard Wood school. Many stops were made in foreign ports with singing, dancing and guitar music provided by the people of each country. One port even contained a presentation by the "Little People." The teachers are to be commended for presenting a very colorful and enjoyable program for the entertainment of young and old.

The 1st and 2nd grade mothers were hostesses for the evening, assisting Mmes. Robert Anders and William Myers, hospitality co-chairmen.

The following officers for the year 1967-68 were elected at the association meeting: Mmes. Carl Kildoo, Jr., president; William Lorenz,

Mr. Andrew W. Kovach, William Brown, Dave Jones, vice presidents; Bill Wood, recording secretary; Victor P. Musil, corresponding secretary; James Hinds, treasurer; Chester Beene, auditor; Donald Darrow, historian.

In conjunction with the Howard Wood Open House and Science Fair on April 19, at 7:30 p.m., the PTA will host an Ice Cream Social, and extends an invitation to everyone visiting the classrooms and the Science Fair to partake of refreshments.

MEADOW PARK
"Envisioning Friends" will be the theme of Meadow Park PTA meeting on Tuesday, April 18, at 7:30 p.m. All classrooms will be open for the annual Open House and parents and friends may meet the teachers and view pupils' work. Also on display will be the Science Fair projects, which will be judged on April 20 and 21. During Open House the PTA will hold an Ice Cream Social in the cafeteria and 7th grade room mothers will serve coffee and cookies.

Meadow Park PTA will sponsor a paper drive on April 20 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the school playground.

PERRY
The following officers were elected to serve on the Perry PTA for the 1967-68 year: Mmes. Richard Greenwald, president; Don Rickabaugh, first vice president; Frank Hadley, second vice president; Don Kruth, third vice president; Don Pawly, secretary; Edythe Johnson, treasurer; John Kunsch, historian; and Mr. Mel Warne-muende, auditor.

SEASIDE
Seaside PTA will hold its Science Fair, "Sonar Sighting," in connection with an Open House on Tuesday, April 18, at 7:30 p.m. Categories in which entries are to be judged are physical science, earth science and biological science. There will be three winners announced for each category and in three grade levels; primary, middle and upper.

The winning displays will be in the cafeteria and other entries will be in the rooms. The PTA is sponsoring a Bake Sale in the cafeteria that evening.

Officers elected for the coming year are: Mmes. Edward Carroll, president; Roland Ellison, Rudy Ramirez, Walter Sutherland, John Thayer, vice presidents; Royce Flowers, recording secretary; Stapley Patton, corresponding secretary; Harold Lindborg, treasurer; William Zecher, parliamentarian; Jack Maag, historian; Harold Lindborg, auditor.

SEPULVEDA

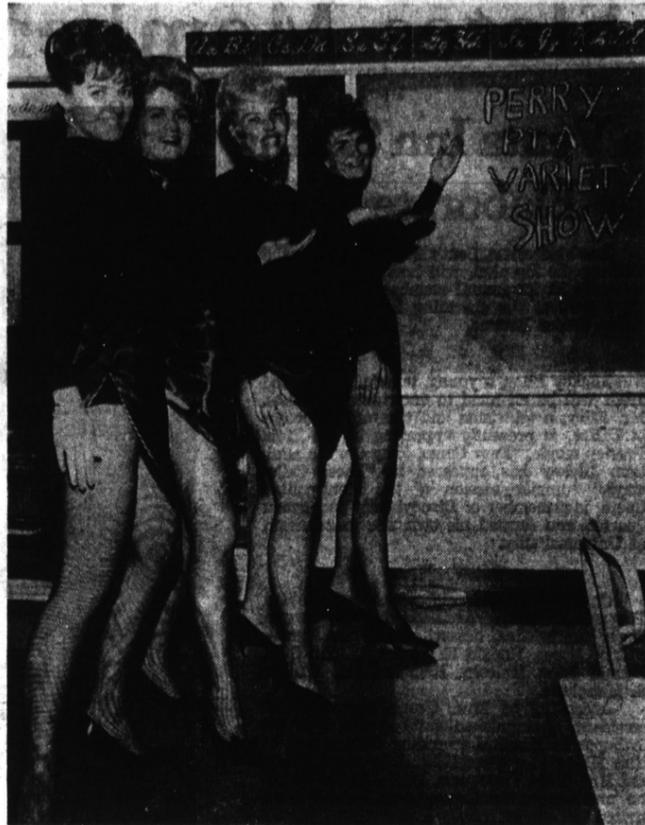

Sepulveda PTA is looking forward to an "Intimate Glimpse of India" Wednesday, April 19, at 7:30 p.m., when Mr. Gurdip Saran, a native of India and now residing in the Sepulveda school area, will be the speaker. Mr. Saran is the husband of program chairman, Jean Saran. Born in India, Mr. Saran received his BS degree at Berkeley and his Master's Degree in Engineering at Oregon State University and is presently employed with Hughes Aerospace.

Recently, Mr. Saran returned from a trip to India and will show slides of his trip, which covers life in the Punjab State.

Chili Surprise

What happens to a bowl of just ordinary chili con carne with or without beans when it is topped with a goodly amount of dairy sour cream is indescribably good. Try it all you chili lovers, and we know you'll agree.

The following officers for the year 1967-68 were elected at the association meeting: Mmes. Carl Kildoo, Jr., president; William Lorenz,

ACROSS THE FOOTLIGHTS

Next Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p.m., the curtain will rise in the Perry School Auditorium for the Perry Ring-A-Ding-Dings Variety Show staged by the PTA and faculty members. The program consists of 15 acts under the direction of Mrs. Donald Pawley. The public is invited to attend the theatrical extravaganza. The Chorus line, in rehearsal for a bangup opening number, are, from left, Mmes. Mel Williams, Merle Marks, Dawn Pawley, president, and Don Rickabaugh. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Equestrian Drill Team

Plans Annual Horse Show

The Skyriders, a Palos Verdes Peninsula women's equestrian drill team, are completing preparations for their third annual Horse Show, Sunday, April 30. This Class-A Drill Association show will be held at the Rolling Hills Stable, starting at 9 a.m. The show will be open only to drill team and drill team members, but the public is welcome to observe the many unusual classes not seen at the average show. Admission is free, and food will be available.

The judges, Marge Eades Johnson, English classes, and Bob Cronin, Western, will award silver trophies to first place, and ribbons first through fifth.

The competition will range from Working Pairs classes to individual events such as Open Jumping and Color Guard. Competing teams, both Senior and Junior, will be vying for High Point Team Awards for the day.

These members of the Skyriders, equestrian drill team, busy now with plans for their third annual Horse Show to be held Sunday April 30, admire a trophy they recently won held by Mrs. Raymond Houchen, left. Others are, from left, Mmes. Emanuel Rose, William Monzon and Robert Nicolait. Their show, beginning at 9 a.m., will be held at the Rolling Hills Stable.

Highlight of the event will be the presentation of Home-maker and Good Citizenship awards. Mrs. Ruben Langmaker of Torrance is among the hostesses for the event. Also attending from this area will be Mrs. Emma Holtgrens and Mrs. W. Brown Smith of Wilmington and Mrs. R. E. Arnsperger of Harbor City.

New Class For Young Girls at 'Y'

A new activity, instruction and participation in an unusual combination of dance and drama, for girls 7 to 11 years of age is being offered by the Torrance YWCA.

The class is designed to develop a girl's natural ability to be creative, using the means of self expression through drama and creative dance. The basic techniques of both drama and dance will be taught. Miss Tita Bryson will be the instructor. She has had five years of interpretive ballet and tap instruction from Melvin Kaiser and has performed with the Melvin Kaiser Dance Academy.

Her drama background includes school drama, both in high school and Marymount College and she has performed with the Kaiser Dance Academy and in Little Theater Groups in the area.

The class will meet at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson from 10 a.m. until noon. More information may be had by contacting YWCA.

Rho Xi Plans Special Meeting

Rho Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will have a special dinner meeting on Wednesday evening, April 19, 1967 at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Portofino Inn, 260 Portofino Way, Redondo Beach.

The special event for the evening will be the Ritual of Jewel ceremony held for Mrs. Peter Phillips.
